HODGSON PORTABLE HOUSES.

We can convey only a slight idea of the innumerable uses to which the Hodgson Portable Houses can be and have been put, or give much of an idea of their construction in this little booklet. If interested, send for our 128 page catalog, which goes into details fully.

Twenty years ago we started in a humble way in a small shop. Today we have a spacious, daylight factory equipped with the most modern machinery and operated by men who have made portable houses a life long study. With this equipment and training, the houses we are able to turn out have won for us an undisputed reputation for being practical, durable and artistic, with a decided sense of individuality and refinement that appeals to all who appreciate these qualities. The fact that 75 per cent of our business each year comes through customers who have used our houses for years, proves that our efforts in building a portable house with these features have been appreciated. They are to be found on the finest estates in this country, being used for cottages, garages, play houses, garden houses, overflow houses, poultry houses, etc.

Rather than use a cheap heavy lumber that is expensive to ship and erect, unsightly and not durable, and put together in a way that leaves much for the purchaser to do and a continual expense to keep in repair, we use red cedar for an outside covering, backed with a heavy fibre lining, making a strong, durable and absolutely waterproof building, requiring no repairs for years, inexpensive to ship and easily erected by unskilled labor. The floors are of rift hard pine; the exterior of the building receives three coats of the best oil paint and all details are attended to at the factory, leaving nothing for the purchaser to do except to key bolt the sections together.

In addition to cottages, garages, play houses, etc., we make portable churches, school houses, club houses, etc.

Send four cents in postage for our 128 page illustrated catalog.

HODGSON PORTABLE GARAGES

Our garages are made mostly of red cedar and cover state laws regarding garages. We quote the prices with and without floors so that you can put in a cement floor if preferred. Red cedar is the most practical wood to use as it is not affected by heat and cold, is artistic in appearance and extremely durable. We have sold thousands of these garages and they are placed on the finest estates where a neat and practical building is required.

Garages made of metal are very sensitive to heat and cold and at the best last but a few years. They are unsightly and if they are not lined (which adds much to the expense) they will condense moisture in cold weather making them damp and unfit for use.
